Follow Your Dreams

Move Definitely, there comes a time when you must get up, go forward into the unknown,

You must feel confident enough within, to follow dreams that are your own.

Be willing to make sacrifices and be prepared for changes,
You must rearrange your priorities then see the advantages.

Appreciate yourself by allowing yourself the opportunities to grow,
Find your true sense of purpose in this life - just get up - go - go -go.

Just be confident, be disciplined, move forward, be in control
Be strong enough - make your life better - achieve your Real Goal

Go for a Win Win

In our business dealings, we can make it possible to go for a win-win
Why does either party have to lose - both can end up with a win-win

There's great value in helping those around us to succeed,
All we have to do is identify,then fulfill their need.

In business, the best way to be on top and lead the field,
Is to make sure we give our clients the best investment yield.

Yes, let us devote ourselves to giving our clients a fantastic value,
Always aiming to give them much more than what is their due.

True leaders know how to treat their customers like royalty.
In return they know they'll get the clients' life-time loyalty

Before anyone lends us their hand, let's touch their heart first.
Delighting, loving and giving happiness to our clients is always a must.

Let us turn our clients into an army of goodwill ambassadors and diplomats
Let them run out to the world and tell everyone about our success formats.

Also remember your competition, treat them like a gem,
Forge alliances and also develop friendships with them.

Business is all about relationships and giving others what they want
The ancient law of reciprocity will kick in
And they'll begin to give you what you want..

It is by giving that we all start the receiving process.
Just remember this one secret and
You will always see growth, development and progress.

Goals, Purpose and Values.

Align everything you do with your goals, purpose and values
Go ahead, get the results you want - you have no time to lose.

Keep adjusting your responses to existing events as they occur
Review your results - take correct action to get better and better.

Concentrate your efforts on the tasks that can be done, only by you
Practice delegating the rest to others to let them pursue.

Daily practice and rehearse these basic principles of success,
You'll soon reach your desired goals through this simple process.

Hearts are Opening

Hearts are opening globally as we now begin to thrive,
It's an extraordinary time, a great moment to be alive.

People are reclaiming their parts that were once brilliant and wonderful,
Parts that they lost as they grew up and their lives became overfull.

The whole world is becoming a better place - we are all agreeing.
Actually there's never been a better time to be a human being.

A very beautiful process is taking place every moment we live.
And it really is an exquisite time to be buzzing and alive.

If You Truly Wish To Give Gifts to Family and Friends
Here Is A List That Someone With Experience Recommends.

It is amazing but it's true that invaluable gifts don't have to cost a cent!!
Forget the flowers, chocolates, perfumes on which most money is spent.

First is the Gift Of Patient Listening
Just Listen - no Dreaming, Responding, or Interrupting.

Second is the Gift Of Love and Affection
Be generous with Hugs, Kisses, Handholds and Constant Attention.

Third is the Gift Of Having Humour, Fun And Laughter Too,
Share funny articles and stories and say : I love to laugh with you

Fourth is the Gift of A Written Note That will Always Be Remembered ,
A simple "Thanks for the help" note, surprisingly will be loudly Heard.

Fifth is the Gift Of A Simple and Sincere Compliment and Praise
"You did a super job" , "That was a wonderful meal" or a similar phrase.

Sixth is the gift of a favour or a good deed
Every day, do something kind for someone in need.

Seventh is the gift of solitude, privacy and space
There are times when we want to be left alone, just nobody to face.

And finally is the gift of a cheerful nature which we all value
Extend a kind word to someone, say, Hello or just say Thank You.

Making a Difference

Let us give back and make a contribution to the future,
Giving with joy and love, we derive great pleasure.

We were put on this earth with unique talents and intention,
When we see a problem, let us go ahead and be part of the solution.

Just thinking about helping other people doesn't give them any assistance,
A small good deed like giving time and attention can make a big difference.

When we give something up , then we are truly giving
Let us give freely and just be focused on helping.

A person only gains by helping another person achieve,
Increasing our giving increases the blessings we all receive.

What we do matters, what others think matters less
Let us enjoy serving others, and watch them progress. .

If everyone waits, nothing happens, moving makes them come alive.
Let us leave this place better than before and soon it will thrive.

Relationships Grow

The heart beats and lives in the present moment,
So appreciate each day, here and now, why be absent

The heart is concerned with compassion, service and love
Because we are all inter connected by the unseen power above

The heart knows that all of us are all part of the same family,
Therefore happiness comes from supporting each other freely.

The heart and head must forge a lifetime partnership,
That's how we can live a beautiful life in the spirit of friendship.

The heart that's filled with love lets the care and kindness just flow
So, let's develop a beautiful bondage and make our Relationships Grow.

Think of Those Who Love You

If someone should hurt you
And say a thing unkind.
Remember what I write to you,
And keep these thoughts in mind.
For everyone that makes you cry,
There are three to make you smile.
And a smile will last a long, long time,
But a tear just a little while.
Don't let someone who hates the world
Cause you hate it too.
Behind the clouds is a golden sun,
And a sky that's full of blue.
If someone said a thing that's cruel,
Don't let it get to you,
Your achievements are greatly numbered,
And your faults are very few.
If someone should hurt you
And should act in a certain way,
Just think of those who love you,
And, DON'T LET IT RUIN YOUR DAY

Goals and Values

Everyday, let's think, do and say the things that fit into our goals
For this we will have to adjust our actions and play the right roles.

Our responses to everything that happen around us will need adjustment
To watch our reactions to each situation should be our daily commitment.

Are we getting the right results in line with our purpose and values?
If not, then we must take action to modify and correct our views.

Let us try and behave like responsible and mature adults.
Slowly and surely we will achieve the desired results.

Walk the path to return home

The purpose of human life is to walk the path to return home
Make a U turn from this world - why just roam and roam

Let's get back to the place we knew, where we were at the beginning,
Think about it.....this will be the great awakening.

Look closely at newborn children - they represent perfection and excellence.
They have the state of mind that we are all aiming for - total balance

They are full of pure love, innocent, infinitely wise in their wonderland.
Full of boundless potential and beautifully connected with the unseen hand.

To get back to our true home, we once again need to be like babies
Filled with wonder, fully enlightened and totally at peace

One who is all light, has no fears, no anger, no shadows, no dark side,
Absolutely no limitationsNow it's up to each one of us to decide.

You Have the Right

You have the right to your dreams, desires and expectations
You have the right to feel like a champion amongst champions.

You have the right to change, to pick and to choose
You have the right to have make blunders despite having many virtues

You have the right to fail and try again, as none of us are always perfect
You have the right to ask for what you need even if others sometimes object

You have the right to decide how you will use your talents
You have the right to be proud of your success and achievements.

Your True Friend

A true and sincere Your True Friend

A true and sincere friend
Is one who stays with you right to the end.
One who is a friend on a continuing basis
Although you may both be in different places

Is one who is always with You.
Inspiring you, assuring you and assisting You,
We can always learn a lot from our true friend
Towards us so much knowledge they have to send.

We get close and attracted to true friends by ties of affection
How sincerely and purely you use this love is up to your own perception.
It is the faithful ones who always aim for perfection.
The "other ones" are not even worth a mention.

True friends can become your intimate companions - usually few and hard to find,
How often do you find those that are compassionate, polite, courteous and kind.
True friends you can easily make out because they are always giving and supporting
In your list of a variety of friends, they are the ones that the most outstanding.

True friends, you can confide in, tell your innermost thought and tension,
They are the ones that will readily give you time and a lot of attention.
A True friend will respond with good advice that is in your best interest
Give you understanding and courage, and lay your fears to rest.

A true friend will support you and defend you courageously,
For his nature is to be loyal and see that you are treated justly
Always concerned about your well being
Knows this is what gives friendship its true meaning.
